

18th OSCE Economic and Environmental Forum

«Climate change: energy and environmental safety of Kazakhstan»

1. Aims

- Creation of market mechanism on the reduction of the greenhouse gases emissions
- Development of sustainable low emission economy
- Formation of green growth principles of

2. Objectives

- Realization of measures on the reduction of greenhouse gases emissions to 15% by 2020 and to 25% by 2050
- Development of internal carbon trading market on the greenhouse gases emissions
- Implementation of the projects on the mechanisms of joint implementation

3. Action plan

- Inclusion to the Annex B of Kyoto protocol
- Regulatory framework for the reduction of greenhouse gases emissions
- Annual inventory of the greenhouse gases emissions
- Creation of the national register of carbon units
- Law on energy saving
- Law on support of the renewable energy usage
- Strategic plan of the transition of Kazakhstan to low emissions development

4. Results:

- Reduction of the greenhouse gases emissions by 15% by 2020 and by 25% by 2050
- Reduction of GDP energy intensity not less than by 25% by 2020
- Achieving 5% share of renewable energy to the total volume of energy consumption